No phase can be revised once (except for the free stage), so the game contains little playback value unless you start a new file. Loath laughs and says that Tron includes the world (referring to the fact that Tron includes the money must be paid). Digg's ghost appears, thanking them for finding the secret, as he had to know, but now he is satisfied and can leave peacefully. "(Give) a gold coin to a cat"), which means "fusion of pearls before pig". The game itself has no reference to said said and was probably chosen due to "koban" and "kobun" with almost corresponding phonetic sound. It seems surprised and compliments the servbots as thank you, apologizing for the behavior of him. Dantz laughs when Servbots ask if they are together. If answering yes, he says he is the spirit and speaks of the excavation values. Moreover, they find a trap, to which Dantz says to disarm a trap, they must hit a switch. Tron asks what is doing rest in mine, and the Servbots suggest running, but birdbot attacks. The missions can request trokes to collect a number of elements, reach a specific position, or (as in the first bank mission) to make the greatest damage as possible time-limit. Glyde goes down, and prepares some condescending words, and says now that they have the Colossus, they are useless to him. He His name is Dantz and the Servbots indicate their names ("which are servbot"). He was able to lower the handles, but he is too heavy for the zipline and ask for servbots for help. Tron asks what he is doing, and Teisel tells her the story of a gigantic ancient treasure known as the Colossus and when she awakened the user could conquer the planet. As they enter the tunnel, tron looks like things will probably become a little more difficult. If tron is inside the Gustaff, it is shown by balancing a pencil on the nose with the sniper's servbot in front of her, and a teddy bear in her seat. At Loath's Palace, Dirise asks for some simple questions "how you do", and then requires the money. One of the servobots asks if this means that she is the biggest, to whom Tron seems certain. Red containers are extra added that earn extra points. Denise is sadly realized that there are more documents. The colossus shines and activates. Gustaff grabs a dreche and go back to Gesellschaft. The servots are elmed that could help, and the woman delivers them a gate key, to which Tron answers is nice to help people when they're in trouble (despite being a bad). Teiseln the colossus shines and activates. borrows a absurd amount of money from the shelf and is captured at the beginning of Glyde game. She warning that there are more traps ahead and servbots to tell you the new missions, and that if they are all in trouble. You happily thank you Denise, saying that those two were high-level criminals. Perl Mormoriors under the breath of her naturally no, that Dantz is a madman, and then ask for help beyond a trap. Colossus FightFocus Switch to Gesellschaft. The Servbots compliment I would say the ship, accidentally insulting them, to which Tron tells them to be quiet. Succeeded They open gates for Tron and his servbots. The last birdbot A" defeated by da with a flying kick. He happily congratulates his alleged plan, while Tron screams at the Servbot as a favorite with the Red Head Parts, leaving him in command for a while. It doesn't say anything more. Since there is no final destination like the action stages, the puzzle stages ended when Tron successfully hijacked every green container on the dock within the specified number of moves. The Servbot lady falls on the massive body of the Colossus and prepares for battle. Past Tuttle are the twins, both waiting for the Tron quiz. He says they have all the pigs, so there's no point in taking the Birdbot and the Servbots leave happy. After catching them to run away with her, only to be attacked again by the same fish robot. He tries to see a man (Glyde) who claims to have been looking for Teisel, and who works for Lex Loath. Death says she's lucky the interest is so low, and she should go get the money. He's the colossus explodes violently. Entering the room of the Colossus, the group, crammed into the Gustaff, looks at the Colossus. Entering a room, the Servbots ask a woman if something is wrong, and she replies that she has been trapped. The main difference between this mode and the others is the interaction with the other characters, as several sets of excavators are in the mine searching for the Aurora Stones, which is also the overall objective of Tron. Teisel tries to reason with him, telling him he has the money ready, but Glyde declares that it has been a long time and starts a battle with Teisel. He also says there seem to be a lot of pitfalls on this floor. The woman says I'm Little strange, and accepts happily to take the next one that finds, leaving the servbots in peace. servbots tell him they were impressed. Servbots follow Tron around in the game and a uniform driver Gustaf alone at some point. Outside the room, Russell says Dantz can proudly join the Diggers. Denise A was always the boss of the Bank missions, while the boss differed in the other stages from reaverbots to robots built by Loath. Tron tells the Servbots to attack the Birdbots, even if they don't want to do it out of cowardice. Servbots deactivate the trap. The wall says it has all of them and that it should be able to do elixir, but it doesn't know how. Tron says it may just be a giant Reaverbot, but Teisel assures her that the refractor was real, since digged himself, so it could be a true story. Tron asks Teisel what he's doing, and Teisel realizes he's serious. Upon reaching the shore, Denise returns, this time riding his mech. The Servbot says he threw everything away. Like any MegaMan game, boss' goal is to empty his health meter. Both exchanged angry comments about Loath, and Tron says they should start an escape. On a wall at the bottom of the mine theres a piece of writing by a man called "Dig.Â" The captain says that A is happy and asks for a report. If the player completes the game, with a message saying "the story continues in Mega Man Legends.Â" The player can easily answer the question whether or not they have collected the crystals. It is no longer seen until the end of the world's largest¹ refractors. Even Perl A was surprised to have done so, and Dantz is proud. Tron says he's there for his siblings, and he gets the money. Loath asks Glyde if A" ready, and Glyde says that A"A" nearly complete.A" After Roxette piA' in lA, Digg has written more about the He He asks if they're going that way, but Tron says to ignore him. Tron orders everyone to head there, and congratulates them on a job well done for locating Loath. Teisel comically screams "it's alive", and then states it's not going to be easy. The final reaverbot cameo is Sharukurusu during the fight against Colossus, and are unlimited, appearing out of thin air the second another is destroyed. The Colossus is real, and the refractor for it is found in the mine they are trapped in. Following after the duo, the Servbots run into Maude again, who says they could dig through the wall near her, and feels she's close to the last stone, but the wall is too dense. Teisel goes teary and talks about their mother and what she'd do seeing Tron run are like she does, then admits he's proud of her. After being beaten, Glyde compliments Teisel, but suddenly flies into the air and barrels down on Teisel, firing a laser on him disarming Teisel and Bon. Wooden crates can be moved anywhere, green and red crates can only be moved ten spaces before they must be placed down and black crates cannot be moved any distance; they can only be picked up and placed down in a nearby square. Tron, back at her ship, is angry with Loath, and notes that she might as well go get the money, since she can't find her brother's location. The Servbots go back and forth about who will pilot it. Tron states how she will try this again. Bank Level 1:Tron and her Servbots land outside what they assume is the bank, and quickly blow the doors open and rush in, only to realize it is a veterinary clinic. Lex Loath comes into the room, and is surprised to see Tron. He attacks Glyde, who responds by arming his bird-like fighter. Tron is unimpressed and still mocks Denise about being on time this time, and the battle starts. Dantz seems happy to see them, as does Perl. Tron loses his temper, troubled by the fact that everything they had worked hard for has disappeared, as Teisel observes completely upset. Bon was eating something, and one of the Servbots start the stage happy to see pigs, but they seem a little depressed because they can't find cows. Your machine has a number of moves, and you play in a puzzle format without time limits. Perl says that he probably got an A in the room, and Dantz runs to get him. Dantz congratulates them, and Tron says a word about Dantz again in a taunting manner, then tells the Servbots to return to the Gesellschaft. I promote Japanese art and cover. Soon after, Tron sees a person who looks like Uncle Digg, and definitely the A". Tron tells the Servbot he pilots the Gustaff that he has a gift for doing a good job. The Servbots receive one after reading it, and Dantz A is absolutely amazed by the writing. After Uncle Digg they meet with old face, Roxette. The Servbots find a man near a lake and ask him if he's waiting for anything. Tron admits he can't leave them, and subtly admits he owes a favor to a friend. When it is denied, Perl silently murmurs that I almost had it. A few steps from the Uncle Digg are Perl and Dantz who seem to work together. Direction once again. He states that he must more interest. History is heavy in dialogue and requires interaction with the characters to proceed most of the time. Teisel prepares to start with his team, and Tron realizes that he will be left behind the Gesellschaft. United States seems to be a type of suspicion. Glyde reveals his plan, stating the prejudice is a genius by decoking the talented excavator in the endless debt. After the defeat, the servbots I am rewarded with another stone aurora. Even more ahead, tron and the group come across Birdbot, Glyde servants. The Servbots observe that everything they need now is anything else, which trons Happy to hear. Dantz suggests dynamite, to which immediate trons say that servbots to stop it before bringing the cave. Denise also realizes that you will be in many problems if you have messed up this time. Level 3: Tron and Servbots say no, but the Servbots say they have found an alleged position for injury. Bon Bonne: The younger brother of the brothers, Bon follows teisel in the desert and jumps the robotic head. The other servobots say they will also come. Unlike Dantz, Maude does not follow the servbots. Despite her face, she is happy that the wall is open and she says to the Servbots to move forward. Dantz says he stops the trap (which is a pendulum that went back and forth with a large metal head for a pendulum head). Tron tells the Servbots to thank him for the advice of him. The servbot that the GUSTAFF can be told to use cranes or forklifts (if one A" present) and darA Puzzle tips at Tron Tron Puzzle solution. Denise is agree, talking about how she can't do anything right. The game has several secondary stories in game events, all playable in any order. Tron is amazed, and tells him that he can't do it. Teisel asks that all weapons are ready, and trok order them to shoot. Dantz (along with all other excavators), seems to not be able to hear tron or notice the Finkel. Before tron can skip the ship, another police officer (denise) is complaining about how late it is. Teisel asks her what she is doing, and trok assures her that she will go well. Roxette thank you for solving the mystery, and that Digg can go ahead. The Servbots drive a truck in the destroyed deck that can be used as a platform. Tron continues to take Denise game, and Denise states that she got a special permit to get the robot. In the first mission one of the servbots, when racing the first home, turn on television, which will show the original 8-bit Mega Man running on the screen, while the introduction of the music boss from Mega Man 2 sounds. She's favorite will go to Loath's casino to get money for her. Russell states that they have the gate key on them. Loath note of being more interesting than it seems, but says he can't get him brother back, not "in a phase so critical". The opening shows two large shelves of ingots, and tron orders to the ground. Later, Dantz congratulates them, and Tron states that he will be a long day. Loath Prepare a final attack. While continue, the group notes a cave in the area, and trund recommends a sort of exercise. The Gustaff can use one of the three weapons For these missions, a search cannon that has power, frequency of fire and quantities of projectiles determined entirely by the servbot statistics driving the robot, a machine gun that shoots much faster than the search cannon but with less power, and a bazooka that is Slower than both weapons, but it is much stronger, and a single explosion can hit multiple times. Container 1 and 2 None of the port missions is in possession of any plot, apart from that tron is trying to steal the load before that it is loaded on the barge. After being defeated, tron further releases on Denise. Level 3: Tron points to how beautiful horses are, saying to the servots to collect them all, stating that The horses will have a nice price. The servbot feels very out, and tron realizes that the elixir is beer at the roots. After reaching Bon and the door, Teisel Contact Gesellschaft, the pirate mother ship.
